THE WATERMARK DIFFERENCE

We at Watermark are proud to bring you this 25th edition of Expressions, hot off the press. We hope you will enjoy it every day of 2024.

Over the many years that our amazing residents have been filling these pages with their inspiring creations, Watermark has been expanding to nearly every corner of the country. Creating extraordinary and innovative communities where people thrive is at the heart of everything we do.

If you or your family member is already thriving with us, we say thank you. If you're just now discovering how wonderful life can be at a Watermark community, we say welcome.

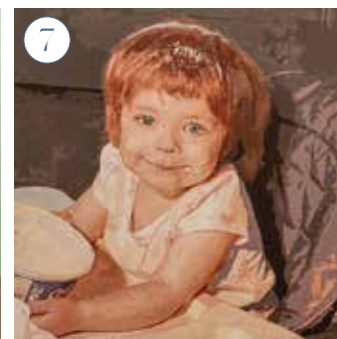

There's a saying that life isn't what's handed to you or what happens to you; it's what you make of it. We're glad so many "makers" make their homes with us. Without makers – of friends and family, of quilts and cross-stitch, of paintings and pottery, of murals and musicals – our world would be drab indeed.

Here's to the makers! And cheers to your health and happiness in 2024.

David N. Barnes
President and CEO, Watermark Retirement Communities Inc.

BARN

Joan Soulia, Legacy at Clover Blossom

Born in St. Johnsbury, Vermont, Joan is no stranger to rural farms and rustic barns. She painted this one in 2023, capturing its character with such style that it's hard to believe she never received formal art training. When she isn't painting, you might find Joan playing virtual tennis or bowling on Wii.

KOI FISH

Shirley Fernekes, The Fountains at Millbrook

Originally from Decatur, Georgia, Shirley has thrived with her many friends at The Fountains since 2019. This award-winning artist has studied at Wooster Art School and Silvermine Art School. She completed this painting at age 90, and her creative gifts keep giving – and we, her admirers, are grateful.

ROPE SCULPTURES

Gene Kennedy, The Watermark at Continental Ranch

A self-taught artist who hails from Santa Rita, New Mexico, Gene has demonstrated that art can be made out of just about anything when you look through the lens of possibility – one of Watermark’s founding principles. Just look at what can happen when you take a blowtorch to a lariat rope!

WITH THEIR BACKS TO THE STORMS

Bill W. Holub, The Watermark at Cherry Hills

You can take the man off the ranch, but ranch life runs deep in this man's soul. Now, thanks to Bill's painting, for the price of a glance, we can all be in Wyoming for a frolic in the snow. This self-taught artist is also a musician and a writer. So glad he joined us! People, like horses, are better together.

BORN — TO — PERFORM

While the previous pages of Expressions reflect examples of visual arts, we'd be remiss not to dedicate well-deserved space to the performing arts. Some people are born to perform while others discover hidden talents if not sheer courage late in life. We celebrate such makers here! Music, comedy, and theater were all on display during the third Summer Stock season starring members of The Hacienda at the Canyon in Tucson, Arizona. They performed "Pomade," a parody of the popular musical adapted and directed by Community Life Director Missy Paschke-Wood, to a standing room-only crowd. Bravo!
